

CONFERENCE:

Expansive Education

ACHIEVE OUTSTANDING LEARNING AND TEACHING

VENUE: Elvin Hall, Institute of Education, London TIME & DATE: Friday 25 May, 0930-1430

Expansive Education is about expanding young people's capacity to deal with real-world complexity and uncertainty. Explore ways in which this vision can be turned into a practical reality through teacher enquiry.

EVENT RATES:

Delegate rate	£95
Early bird (before 30th April)	£75
eedNet Members	£45

REGISTER NOW:

Book your place: www.expansiveeducation.net/calendar or email eednet@winchester.ac.uk. Two months free membership of eedNET for delegates who join before 25th June.

PEARSON

CONFERENCE:

Expansive Education

For educators who are committed to focusing on the development of useful, transferable learning dispositions

Keynote speakers:

Professors Guy Claxton & Bill Lucas

Co-directors of the Centre for Real-World Learning, the University of Winchester

Why expansive education is essential to 21st century educators

How professional enquiry creates outstanding teachers

Philippa Cordingley, Chief Executive, CUREE

The power of research in school improvement

Steve Besley, Head of Policy Pearson Education International

A teacher-friendly overview of current developments in education

Take part in an open-space session with some of our Expansive Education Pioneers and explore new resources

Why should I attend?

- Help students become resilient, independent and collaborative learners
- Learn how to provide expansive education for your pupils
- See how the science of learnable intelligence is transforming teaching
- Get ready to start your own professional enquiry/action research
- Find out what the government is currently planning

Who should attend?

- School leaders - Primary, Secondary & Independent
- Leaders of Professional Development
- Leaders of Teaching & Learning

Our Expansive Education Pioneers:

Whole Education

Innovation Unit

